- St. John Chrysostom

Parish News:

✝ If you would like to sign up for house blessings, the sign up sheet is downstairs.

✝ This Saturday, January 9th, is the Marian Conference. We will be having a Divine Liturgy there at 7 AM. You are most welcome to attend. The location is the Paso Robles Event Center, Mid-State Fairgrounds Auditorium, 24th and Riverside Ave, Paso Robles, CA. It is also a nice event to spend the day at. There will be good talks on our faith throughout the day. Confessions will also be available.

✝ On January 23rd the annual Walk for Life West Coast is in San Francisco. Some parishioners are talking a bus that will stop at San Luis Obispo. For more information contact Celine Souza at 929-0115.

Just for laughs

A priest went to visit a home for Christmas and he was so hungry that he kept eating the peanuts that were on this big dish. He kept eating and eating until there were no more peanuts left. He was quite embarrassed and the mother saw that look of embarrassment on his face. To solace the priest the mother said: "Don't worry about it, the children had already licked the chocolate off of them."

Christ is Born! Glorify Him!

I hope you are still celebrating the Birth of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! Most of our parish came for the Holy Supper. Thank you for all who participated in the event. And we had a great turnout for Christmas. Combining the attendees for the Vigil and day Liturgies we had more people for one day than since I have arrived. Some parishioners made it for both Liturgies! The guests surely added to our festivities. And now the great feast of Theophany is fast approaching. We will be having on January 5th Royal hours at 10 a.m., a Divine Liturgy/ Vespers Service with Great Blessing of the Waters at 6:30 p.m. and on January 6th a 9:00 a.m. Liturgy. We look forward to continuing the celebrations with you and the good Lord.

Once again, Mary Christmas and Blessed Theophany.

Father James
